Terms of Service

Terms for using Pulse.

These Terms explain how you can use Pulse and what you can expect from us in return.

Last updated: April 28, 2026

1. Agreement

By creating an account or using Pulse, you agree to these Terms and our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, please do not use the service.

Pulse supports your recovery journey, but it does not replace professional medical or mental health care.

2. Eligibility

You must meet the minimum legal age required in your country to use Pulse. By creating an account, you confirm that you are legally allowed to enter into these Terms.

3. Your account

You are responsible for keeping your account secure and for any activity that takes place using it.

- One account per person - Please don't share your account or pretend to be someone else.
- Keep your information accurate - Provide accurate account information and keep it up to date.
- Account security - Choose a strong password and contact us if you believe your account has been compromised.

4. Medical disclaimer

Pulse provides tools for tracking recovery, reflecting on your progress, and connecting with others. The information provided by Pulse, including AI-generated insights, is for informational purposes only and should not be considered medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

Always seek advice from a qualified healthcare professional regarding medical decisions or concerns.

5. Community guidelines

Our community is built on kindness, respect, and support. By participating, you agree to:

- Treat others respectfully - Do not harass, threaten, discriminate against, or intentionally harm other members.
- Respect privacy - Do not share another person's personal information or content without permission.
- Share experiences, not medical advice - You're welcome to share your own journey, but avoid presenting personal opinions as professional medical guidance.
- Report inappropriate content - Help keep the community safe by reporting content that violates these guidelines.

6. Your content

You retain ownership of the content you create in Pulse, including check-ins, reflections, goals, and community posts. By using the service, you grant us the limited rights necessary to store, display, and process your content in order to provide Pulse.

7. Subscriptions

Pulse is currently available free of charge. As the platform evolves, we may introduce new services or partnerships to help support and sustain the platform. If this happens, we will clearly communicate any changes before they take effect.

8. Account termination

You may delete your account at any time. We may suspend or terminate accounts that seriously violate these Terms or threaten the safety of our community.

9. Limitation of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Pulse is provided on an 'as is' and 'as available' basis. We are not responsible for indirect or consequential damages resulting from your use of the service.

10. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. If we make significant changes, we will notify you through the app or by email when appropriate.

11. Contact

If you have any questions about these Terms, please contact our support team.
